Driving down to Fort Whipple this foremoon, we were agreeably surprised at observing so much activity in that quarter. A as any heretofore worked. They are now large force of mechanics are busily engaged in erecting handsome residences, which are on Kirkland creek has been grinding away fast approaching completion, on Headquarter for two weeks, and they intend to continue Hill. One of these, we understand, is to be Hill. One of these, we understand, is to be occupied by Capt Goodale, and another by Col Dodge, who will shortly arrive and take command of the 23d infantry. A large stone structure is being actively pushed forward as an addition to the present commissary building, and workmen are busy preparing the new flag-staff for crection, which will happen on the 1st of May.

The case of Patrick Flynn, for assault with a deadly weapon on the person of J. J. Buck-man, came up for hearing this a. m., before Justice Otis. The evidence elicited fully confirmed the statement made by us in our issue of Saturday last. Flynn having no deissue of Saturday last. Flynn having no de-fence, was bound over in the sum of $500 too good, has been making a weekly practice to await she action of the next grand jury --

Col. James M. Barney and Dr H. H. Davis left town this morning by private convey-ance—Dr Davis for the Colorado River Reserve, and Col Barney for various points in the southern part of the Territory. We extion concerning matters which came within their observation while en route to Prescott.

Mr Thomas Cordis, collector of internal revenue, is around after wholesale, retail and other dealers, manufacturers, etc., for their special tax, for the year commencing May I, 1874, and ending April 30, 1875, in accordance with notice given by that gentleman in several past numbers of the Weekly Mines.

The county recorder's office, during the absence of Mr Ed. W. Wells, is under the supervision of Mr Thos. Cordis.

Flanders' show last night was quite a pleas-ant one. To night Mr F. intends to show a large collection of Arizons scenes, which will be particularly pleasing.

[From Monday's Daily.]

Mr E. Fender arrived last evening from the Hassayampa, where he has been busily en-gaged for the past three months, construct-ing the mill and arrastras of Mr Fredericks, and reports the 5 stamp battery and two ar-rastras in full working trim and crushing rock from the Smith and Banning claim. A recent experimental run on rock from this claim, Mr Fender informs us, netted $600.

Mr Jesso Jackson arrived in town last evening from Bradshaw and feels jubilant over flattering prospects in that section.

About eighty tons of first-class ore is awaiting transportation from his claim on the War Ragie to the Del Pasco mill, a force of men being basily engaged pushing a road through the between these points. Mr Jackson fully confirms previous encouraging accounts from that section.

Mr Planders' series of stereopticon entertainments closed last evening. They were entertaining and instructive. Mr F. will, during the week, finish up the work he has on hand, and then proceed to Tueson, to the people of which place we commend him a an excellent artist and a pleasant gentleman.

[From Tuesday & Daily]

Mr. C. A. Luke starts to-night, by the buckboard, for San Francisco, having been elected by Arizona Lodge, No. 1, L. O. O. F., Representative to the Grand Lodge of California, which will meet at Vallejo on the 12th of May. Mr. Luke also intends, as a part of his business in California, to induce some of his numerous friends in San Fran-cisco to furnish a mill to be erected on some of the rich mines in Bradshaw.

Mr. D miel Martin arrived in town last evening from Bradshaw, Humbug and other districts in that locality, bringing with him of his new-fangled furnace recently erected the burro train. He assures us of most flattering prospects in the Bradshaw claims, and that Mr. Geo. Monroe and about twenty others are still doing No. 1, on Humbing creek; in that locality, in arrastras, etc. also, that there is considerable life on Castle | Grant's mail wagon came in the creek, on the south side of Silver mountain Frenchman's camp, over new developments in the placer works. Some splendid specimens have already been taken out.

Mr C. C. Bean, accompanied by Mr Miller, started for Camp Verde this morning, to superintend hay operations at that post.

Mr. Wm. Simmons arrived last evening from the Hassayampa with his pack train, and started back this morning loaded with supplies for Mr. Frederick. This latter gentleman was also in town and displayed to tieman was also in town and displayed to our gaze about $1,000 worth of gold chunks, the most beautiful we have beheld for many a day. Mr. Frederick naturally feels good over the promising success of his new enter-prise, and assures us now, that he has every-thing perfected, he can crush from five to six tons of rock per day tons of rock per day.

The location, down Granite crock, selected by the Salvador Mining Company, for their mill, proved to be on the military reserva-tion, and they have taken a new tack. They now have men at work grading and prepar-ing a building spot, just outside the town limits on the south, and on the west bank of the creek. We are assured that the mill will be up and in working order as scon as a large force of men can do the job.

Mr Flanders has now completed a large selection of stereoscopic Arizona views, copies of which all Arizonans would do well to secure at once, as Mr Flanders leaves for the southern country on Monday next, and the chance of obtaining such first-class, natural representations may not occur again for Lt and Mrs Rice, escorted by a cavalcade of officers and ladies from Headquarters, started for their new home at Camp Apache this morning, taking with them the best wishes of all.

Mr Fender, millwright, and Mr Babcock machinist, departed this morning for Lyux creek to make the preliminary arrangements for the removal, to the new site, of the Eureka quartz mill.

Chas. W. Beach arrived yesterday from Kirkland valley, and started this morning for the Agua Fria, to load his train with corn for the Verde Indian Reservation.

A good supply of mining location notices on hand now. Come and get them.

J. H. Marion, editor of the MINER, hopes to be able to start home from Phoenix to morrow or the next day.

Mr Ballou was in town to-day, and re-ports miners doing first-rate and plenty of water in Lynx creek. Our restaurant keepers are looking anxionaly for ampplies of chickens. Farmers, kindly give them a call and gratify them.

Didn't anybody ask us to keep quiet about a matrimonial affair that's coming off before long, not a thousand miles from here, on the road to the Burnt ranch.

Sol Jackson is in town from Lovejoy's hy-draulic works, on Lynx creek, and reports everything working nicely.

Grant's buckboard started last night, carrying three passenger—Sergeant McKay, for Tucson, and Messrs, C. A. Luke and Wm. Boreman, for California.

Mr. II. V. Cram is receiving a large as sortment of first class confectionery, which be is offering at reduced rates.

Mr. Geo, W. Curtis' teams are busy hauling lumber from his Quartz Mountain sawmill, to the site of the new buildings about to be erected on Montezuma street.

Donald Ross, from Camp Apache, called at our office to-day, and revealed to us that there is some corruption in mail matters out that way; that while he receives other pa pers regularly the MINER gets there only at times_three or four at once. Friends Apache, we will look to this matter, and, if possible, see that the fault is remedied

The meeting, thereafter, proceeded to fill vacancies in the county central committee, and elected J. W. Simmons and W. W. Hutchison vice Robert Bell, deceased, and L. R. Stephenson, removed from the Territory The delegates elected to the Territorial Convention were, by a vote of the meeting instructed to endorse Hiram S. Stevens for delegate to Cangress.

Col U. P. Head and Ed W. Wells arrived yesterday afternoon from Phoenix. The Od says at that place the season is at least two months in advance of Prescott, and tells of strawberries and other vegetable luxuries, of which Prescott is liable to know but little for months to come. He was also astonisted at the appearance of the grain crops, and amores us that, while a much less number of acres were planted this year, the yield will fall but little short of last season.

Mr Wells gives an interesting accounts mining matters along the road; how that rustling, go-ahead fellow, Bill Smith, is pounding gold out of the Vulture lode, and of his new-fangled furnace recently erectd for working the the tailings from the mile

Celebrated IXL Bitters NEW LIVERY AND FEED STABLE THE BEST TONIC IN USE.

THE REASON WHY

The question is daily naked by thousands of our citizens, "Why is it the IXL Bitters have achieved such popularity with the public, and have such at immense sale?" The reason is because they are us old and well ustablished article, and are made from the most choice berie and roots; the many who have tried them, testify to their beneficial qualities, and have no healtation in recommending them to their afflicted friends.

They are acknowledged to be the best toxic and recoperator known; they holid up the systems, and impart strength to the weak and exhausted, and are endoused and recommended by our most entirent Physicians, (as per certificates on each bottle). To those afflicted with the Dyappenia, Indigention and Lose of Appetic, as a blood purffer they surpass all other so called touins which have lately been placed in the merket.
